1           8.       (Currently Amended) A vehicle seat (1) having comprising:
2                   at least one rotatably mounted upholstery element;
3                   and a device limiting the movement of the upholstery element, the 4 device comprising: according to any one of the preceding claims
5                   a locking piece (7) which is arranged inside the rotatably mounted part 6 and can be made to releasably engage with a counter-bearing (15), wherein the 7 locking piece (7) operatively interacts with a control device (10) situated in the area of 8 the joint (4) of the rotatably mounted part

1           9.       (Currently Amended) The vehicle seat as claimed in claim 8, 2 ~~characterized in that~~ wherein the device serves is configured to limit the movement of 3 a backrest (5) folded from a substantially upright position of use onto ~~the~~ a seat part
4 (3) into a horizontal transport position.

1           10.      (Currently Amended) The vehicle seat as claimed in claim 8 ~~or 9,~~
2 ~~characterized in that~~ wherein the device serves to limit the movement ~~of a~~ of the seat
3 part (3) folded from a substantially horizontal position of use away from the ~~backrest~~
4 ~~(5)upholstery element~~ into one of a vertical or and horizontal transport position.

1           11.      (Currently Amended) The vehicle seat as claimed in ~~any one of claims~~
2 ~~8 to 10~~ claim 8, characterized in that wherein the device serves for limiting the 3 movement between segments (29.1, 29.2) of the ~~backrest (5)upholstery element~~ that 4 can be folded from substantially upright positions of use onto the seat part (3) into 5 horizontal transport positions.
